

Celebrate Black
History Month

MARCIA TATE ARUNGA

Connecting Our Past

Thursday, February 22
12 noon–1 p.m.

Seattle City Hall
Bertha Landes Room
5th and Cherry

Marcia Tate Arunga is a longtime community guardian and cultural custodian who organized and has led 7 cultural reconnections missions to East Africa primarily for African American women from the Northwest. She is a lecturer at Seattle Central Community College and Bellevue Community College where she teaches inter-cultural communication.

Free and open to all!

Sponsored by the
Seattle Office for Civil Rights

*"In order to know where you are going,
you must know where you come from.
In order to understand cultural reconnection,
we must understand our cultural disconnection."*

City of Seattle Greg Nickels, Mayor